Five partners, 2024 to 2026 · Extended Edition

EVERY CLIENT ON FILE, SEP 2026

5 of 5 clients came back and bought again

A result is a number. A rebooking is a decision, made by someone who already saw the first report

CLIENT	FORMAT	PURCHASE HISTORY	SPAN
Outskill	25 email Primary Ad placements	25 separate purchases	Jul 2024 to Nov 2025 · 16 months
Guidde	21 email Primary Ad placements	21 separate purchases	Dec 2024 to Oct 2025 · 10 months
ElevenLabs	Bespoke LinkedIn carousels	2 campaigns, 5 carousels each	Jan and Mar 2026
Luma AI	Bespoke LinkedIn carousels	2 campaigns, 5 carousels each	Jan and May 2026
Gamma	Bespoke LinkedIn carousels	2 campaigns, 5 then 6 carousels	Jan and Feb 2026

Investment figures are logged in CASE-STUDIES-SOURCES.md and are not shown here - a prospect sees results and repeat-buy behaviour, not what another client paid

A Primary Ad slot Outskill kept in rotation for 16 straight months

OBJECTIVE

Grow enrolments for Outskill's AI courses and fill recurring webinars, with pushes timed to their launch calendar. What started as a single placement in July 2024 became a standing slot: 25 separate purchases, one after another, through November 2025

WHAT WE RAN

25 Primary Ad placements in the email newsletter, July 2024 to November 2025. Each placement carried one offer, one creative and one call to action

Ten months of waves, timed to Guidde's own product calendar, not ours

Full-funnel growth: awareness of Guidde's AI video documentation, then signups, in waves aligned to product moments. 21 placements between December 2024 and October 2025, spaced around Guidde's own launch windows rather than a fixed cadence

WHAT WE RAN

21 Primary Ad placements in the email newsletter, December 2024 to October 2025, plus three LinkedIn newsletter issues in autumn 2025

A second campaign followed two months after the first had a full report

OBJECTIVE

Launch Creative Studio and drive product signups among creators, marketing and enterprise teams, working from the highest-intent ICP segments identified with the ElevenLabs team. The first batch of five carousels ran in January 2026, a second in March

WHAT WE RAN

Two campaigns of five bespoke LinkedIn carousels each, January and March 2026. Each carousel was a free ebook on one use case, with a lead-capture download

A second campaign, four months later, once the first had proved out

Drive trial signups for Luma's AI image and video tools among marketing, brand and creative teams. January's five carousels had a full report behind them before the second batch of five went into production in May

WHAT WE RAN

Two campaigns of five bespoke LinkedIn carousels each, January and May 2026. Each carousel was a free ebook on one creative workflow, with a lead-capture download

A second, larger batch, one month after the first

Launch Gamma's AI agent for presentations and drive signups among professionals who build decks. Five carousels in January 2026 were followed by six in February - the second batch larger than the first

WHAT WE RAN

Two campaigns of bespoke LinkedIn carousels, five in January and six in February 2026. Each carousel was a free ebook on one presentation workflow, with a lead-capture download

RUN YOURS

Same format. Your product, your numbers

Every campaign ends with a report like the ones behind these five pages: clicks, downloads, and cost against a stated benchmark

Email placements

Primary Ad in the email newsletter. 97K+ subscribers, 30% open rate, guaranteed 200 clicks a placement

Bespoke carousels

Five carousels on five use cases, each a lead-capture ebook. 240K to 290K views and 2,600 to 3,800 downloads per campaign pair, measured

Recurring waves

Placements timed to your launches, webinars and product moments, across email and LinkedIn

Every campaign closes with a written report in the same format as the five pages before this one: clicks, downloads, and cost against a stated benchmark. Every engagement is scoped to your goals and quoted as one package - there is no rate card in this edition
